Academic diaries

Short description:	Academic diaries with custom covers and print-ready pages
Long description:	Our personalised academic diaries let you create unique designs for the front and back covers, while the interior features thoughtfully designed pages for students to stay organised, with space to write their name, record their term timetables and plan their academic schedule. Each academic diary is made to order and available in a format that suits your audience – with a choice of spiral binding (hard or soft cover) or PUR binding (paperback with a printable spine). You can also choose between A4 and A5 sizes, depending on whether your customers prefer something portable or a bit more spacious. To create your custom diary, simply download the print templates for your preferred size, edit the content as desired and upload your complete PDF when prompted during the order process. We'll handle the printing, packing and dropshipping, delivering it directly to your customer. For detailed file setup instructions, please refer to our step-by-step guides: - Spiral-bound notebook guide - PUR-bound notebook guide These guides are intended for fully custom notebooks and include instructions for uploading your own page content. Since you're using our print-ready pages, you can skip those parts and focus only on the sections that explain how to set up your cover – and spine, if applicable. Please note: Hard cover spiral notebooks are only available from EU.
