

Spacer frames

Short description:

A contemporary twist on the traditional box frame

Long description:

The spacer frame has a deep fillet to create additional depth for displaying custom artwork or photographs.

Prints are typically back-mounted, creating a modern, contemporary look. The Spacer uses our solid ash box frame which has a box profile measuring 20mm (front face) by 33mm (depth from wall).

Available in black, white, brown and natural.

Choose from a Float Glass or Perspex glaze.

Please note: the size listed for each frame refers to the size of the glaze and does not include the width of the frame.
